Summer holidays are ending, and we look forward to returning to Theatr Brycheiniog to hear what friends have been up to in the past few weeks. Some have travelled by plane to Australia and others by boat to Mediterranean Islands or the Isle of Wight, while others continue to enjoy Wales. Some of our Special Interest Groups have carried on meeting, especially to walk from Llanfrynach up beside the water cascades of Nant Manasgin towards Fan y Big, and others from Glasbury up towards Ffynnon Gynydd and down along the Wye Valley.

On a beautiful sunny evening, at the beginning of August some members travelled by coach to Worcester for a concert in the Cathedral as part of the Three Choirs Festival. Hopefully the weather will be as good when we visit Slimbridge Wetland Centre in October. There have been games of Scrabble and Mah Jong and time to read the "Bookshelf" book, "The Echo Chamber" ready for discussion on 12th September when we will start our Thursday with a talk by Phil Clark telling us about his grandfather Jack Clark, "A True Breconian".
